家づくりのために
知っておきたいこと。

家は、窓から。

Compared to the rest of the world, the awareness of windows is low in Japan. Wooden windows, which have excellent insulation capacities and also are beautifully designed, are common and mainstream in most developed countries. Multi glazed windows with high insulation abilities, is the general standard. Sweden House is offering a standard of "wooden sash, triple glazed windows", in Japan. We build houses which are gentle for both the environment and the family.

Happiness comes from the window.
